Situated in a sleek Rothelowman Architect designed development that rises above the former Tip Top factory, the home flaunts luxe light-filled interiors which comprise an open plan living and dining area spilling to a generous north-facing terrace. Connecting in with a modern kitchen appointed with premium Smeg appliances, this space then flows on to a fabulous designated study zone which will prove popular for anyone working or studying from home. Further on, the spacious double bedroom boasts a stretch of fitted wardrobing and extends out to a private alfresco area creating an ideal space to relax over coffee or drinks and enjoy the vibrant outlooks.
